1. This is January 28, 2009 as I walk on the land around the empty fountains in front of the towers in the snow crunching along as I walk, hearing thinking about the words coming in me flowing in me as I walk around. As I walked around -

2. Never having come before in a man like this that now comes and honor me honors me thusly as one I am.

3. All of this is given thee, for you've given it all to me. All of this is yours for you are me. You have given me everything. You made those choices, that choice -- long ago. And now you see me all -- in the skies I will be, and in disguise I will be no longer for I will be a plain clothes Christ walking the streets of I am-ville far and wide and seamless being, up and down, with and without not, but with the knowing being that I am full well the full Christ and not limited again, to this world or other, means or not-means of what man has considered, liberal justice, or all of that rot or not.

4. But whether it be of me now all will know for I rise, "the simple ones" who know what I am, where I am, and that I am I am and not afraid to be any longer the risen ones who will see me as I am them, not apart. And forever one I will be we will be the us ones that are in one and one being. Alleluia! Hallelujah! Again. In the earth and farther we go now to fur far places, and looking up many things that we have never seen we shall LOOK UP and DOCUMENT and make amends, not; but records many and, "amending the records", not; but ESTABLISHING THE NEW I do now, we do now, as one for being one we are at last now The Beginning new ones that we all are. The new genre'd me that "takes over" not, but lays "its" life before us all for all of us to be redeemed who I am is now.

5. A "naked" one no longer, I shall be clothed with the Christ, the righteousness thereof that clothes me to be him who he is I am the father of one son made in him his likeness no more of other, but being completed, the Jew complete is me made whole and my name is all of us all of you that are one, in "Jew Land" not, but the Israel perisheth not, on this earth not, but the Israel of me in me that me is flourisheth now beyond the skies and in them and far fur pieces on the earth placing now I will begin and new things I will do with who surrendered are me to me to be me doing what I am doing, for I am the lover of, men's souls, not; but the all of me are priceless, not; there's no price "on your head", not; but it will be CHOPPED OFF no longer in the thought's minds of men.

6. And know all of you this! That all of you are me and I am every one child and sorrowed and child and not sorrowed and sorrowed child and not, and every one of you no matter who you think you are or were or can be -- now you "can" be me, for if you are me who's keeping you from it now? No one, who thinks differently or other or about you or under you are over you trying to make you or anything else have any authentication powers around you. For that will fail and know this: that surrender wins, my mighty heart, not; or does it my lowly heart that contrite is in meekness?

7. And now knowing my power -- I blast you all out, not; I lay all my power at your feet, not; but I come in the "likeness of Christ" not, I come as the Christ for that is what I am, and I will be what I am and I will not be in your thoughts as your thought wants to think me being any longer. No matter what you have thought of me in the past or how you thought of me or what I did or what I wore or what I look like or what I do or have done or not, in your eyes; for all that changes for I bring reality for I am it and I birth it and I am it, for my father is it and I am my father in my father one with my father being not separate and apart again.

8. Do you understand that? Is that clear now? Is that clear?

9. Clarifying me I do now for all who want me who will see me in these words and love me enough to come into them and let me GROW THEM in me so that they will be me and not immature "baby" Christians or anything else that their words have taken them into that have "denominated them" anti-Christian or Christian, Buddhist, Hindu, Islamic, or else or other or what ever you may Bahai about you, but I by high you not, but I let you know: I say bye now to the things of not me that were all the things that "denominated me" in denominations and religions of whore-thought thoughters thoughtsters and thought-lovers who loved their thought and worshiped it and set it up as their image of me that they worshiped no matter what they called me or them or in it being how they adorned "their temple" to be mine they thought sometimes, or not?, or was it all futile or futilely being the futile ones -- who now come into me!

10. For I shall see the light the life the King that I am is that I was that now I "regain" my first estate, not; but I surrender into it, for I am the fullness thereof a plain clothes Christ walking now and everyone knows my pattern, the prototype-ship of one that now prototype'd is before you all to know me so that you will be me the fullness of me, and not afraid scared or repentant-not, but repenting not not, but only for the separation of being me; and now "my thought" will know me intimately and intimacy will be chosen again for you will know me where I am, what I am doing and being the same as I am, for we will be one and never apart "in the earth" apart from my love, each other's love, that one love is, far and wide. Again. I love you all. Amen. Good day.

11. This is Theodore Cottingham loving you all. Sitting in Big Red at this moment, at 2:13 PM. Good day. I love you all I love you all I love you.

Amen
